

ERASMUS+ SMALL SCALE PROJECT
TEACHING LANGUAGE AND CULTURE FOR INTEGRATION THROUGH
OUTDOOR LEARNING AND CULTURAL ENCOUNTERS
Nr. 2021-2-LT01-KA210-SCH-000050777

LANGUAGE TEACHING OUTDOORS: AN EXPERIENCE OF SWEDISH FOREST SCHOOL

WORKSHOP REPORT

Organizer: Lt2 Consulting AB

Date: 2022 06 20-21

Lecturers: Stina Lindblad, Lotta Carlegard, Anna Alden

Place: Uppsala, Sweden

Number of participants: 4 experts from project partner organisations, that is 2 from VšĮ Eko mintis and 2 from Lithuanian Language and Culture Center,

Date: 30/03/2022

Workshop topic: English language lesson

PROGRAM

Day 1

- Meet-up and introduction
- Background to teaching language outdoors in Sweden and the importance of language for teaching sustainable development. (Stina)
- Lunch
- What do we do in a Forest School? An experience exchange with highly experienced outdoor teachers Anna Alden, Holt Magnus of Uppsala Forest School
- Discussion about development of project methodological guidelines
- Dinner with Swedish colleagues

Day 2

- Practical exercises in outdoor teaching. Part 1. The participants take both teachers and pupils' roles in each other's exercises.
- Lunch
- Practical exercises in outdoor teaching. Part 2. The participants take both teachers and pupils' roles in each other's exercises.

- Discussion about our experiences, teaching material and development of the project teacher training program.

Results:

- The seminar was based on practical activities and experience sharing.
- The project outputs development strategy, design and each partners responsibility were discussed and confirmed.
- A cooperation arrangement with associated partners were done.

Report done by Stina